OUT OF CORDOBA is an award-winning documentary film directed by Jacob Bender, CAIR-Philadelphia’s Executive Director. The film explores the dramatic lives of Ibn Rushd the Muslim and Musa Ibn Maymun the Jew, the two leading personalities from the city of Cordoba in Al-Andalus, and its heritage of “convivencia” (religious coexistence). Filmed in the USA, Spain, Morocco, France, Italy, Egypt, Israel and Palestine, and 10 years in the making, the film also explores contemporary relations between Muslims, Jews, and Christians, the struggle against religious extremism, the revolts for human rights in the Middle East, and for justice in Palestine. The film has been screened over 120 times at universities, film festivals, mosques, churches, and synagogues around the world, including a special screening at United Nations Headquarters. OUT OF CORDOBA is a powerful plea for greater interfaith understanding in our own often violent times. A discussion with Jacob Bender will follow the screening.
